Embark on a captivating journey along Route 62, starting in Cape Town and traveling through scenic vineyards to Oudtshoorn, famous for its ostrich farms and the incredible Cango Caves. We continue to Graaff-Reinet, a town rich in history and surrounded by the vast beauty of the Karoo, before carrying on to Addo, where we will experience the wonder of the Addo Elephant Park, home to the 'Big 5' and diverse wildlife. Our route back to Cape Town takes us along the beautiful Garden Route, visiting Knysna, known for its scenic lagoons and dense forests, and Hermanus, a coastal paradise famous for whale watching and stunning cliffside views. Along the way back to Cape Town, we pass through Franschhoek, a charming wine valley. This journey perfectly blends nature, wildlife, culture, and coastal beauty.
