CAPE TOWN

Cape Malay Cooking Safari

Code: CAP033

Option: CAPCMC

This interactive experience is with one of the country's oldest established communities that date back to their forced arrival as captives in the 1600's. As their land in the East was being occupied by European Colonists, dissenters were loaded onto sailing ships and banished to other colonies around the world, of which the Cape of Good Hope was one of these colonies. The Cape Malays were a talented and productive people and were deployed in building the Cape Colony. Amongst them were builders, architects, carpenters, tailors, traders, fishermen and gardeners. We visit this community that was confined to an area on the slopes of Signal Hill, called the Bo-Kaap or Cape Malay area.

Departing from your Cape Town city based hotel at approximately 08:45, your first stop will be a walking tour of the historical and heritage protected area of cobbled streets, colourful Cape Georgian homes, community corner stores and a number of mosques that were built between 1795 and 1958.

You will visit a Community Empowerment Project, the popular local spice (Masala) shop and the Bo-Kaap Museum. You will then visit a local resident host for an exciting encounter of her religious, cultural and culinary background within her home. You will participate in preparing and cooking samosas, roti (flat bread), and chicken or vegetable curry within her kitchen and around her table. Afterwards you will be transferred back to your hotel. The drop-off time will be approximately 13:00 – 13:15, except for Fridays, when your drop off time will be after 13:30.

Services Included

- Return transfers with an English guide.
- Entrance fees to Bo-Kaap Museum, a cooking session (demonstration) with ingredients for the cooking session.
- Lunch at the local family's home (excluding beverages).

Please Note

- Departs daily on request.
- Tours do not run on Sundays, Easter Friday, Christmas Day, Cape Argus Cycle Race and the Two Oceans Marathon Day .
- Clients may take as many pictures as they wish. However, we ask that permission be requested before taking pictures of individuals who are not the hosts, service providers or guides.
- It is not encouraged to give children in the streets any sweets or money. Donations or gifts are most welcome and we are happy to assist in determining the appropriateness of the clients' kind gesture. We do have a wish list, which can be provided to clients prior to arrival.
- Clients are to wear comfortable shoes and appropriate clothing in a way that is respectful to this predominantly Muslim community (i.e. please do not wear miniskirts/shorts, sexy clothing, flashy jewellery or display bare shoulders). Women are requested to bring a scarf to cover their heads in case they are invited to visit the mosque.
- Clients are to bring sun, rain and wind protection.
- We recommend that clients bring a little bit of cash for personal purchases.

Cape District Six and Bo-Kaap Tour

Code: CAP033

Option: CAPBOK

Departing from Cape Town city centre, your first stop will be in the Bo-Kaap. Here we will tell you why the arrival of a small expedition of Dutch sailors in 1652 proved to be a monumental turning point in the South African history. We will take a short walk along the romantic cobbled stone streets between the brightly coloured homes and your guide will explain how the framework of racial segregation was established.

A short drive passing some of Cape Town's landmarks will bring us to District Six where we will elaborate on the next tier in the South African story of the Apartheid. Once in District Six, we will drive through the decaying ruins of what was once a flourishing mixed race community of 60 000 people. This area was later demolished and reserved exclusively for whites. We further explain the introduction of Apartheid, the legislation to justify the demolition of District Six and the consequences thereof.

Our journey continues to Langa, the oldest Black African Township in Cape Town. On arrival at Langa, we will have a photo opportunity at the site that commemorates the student uprising of 1976; we discuss the Pass Laws and the barracks that were built for African migrant workers. We then travel onto the Gugulethu and Amy Biehl memorials, explaining the history of these two important memorials on the way. At the end the tour you return to the city.

Services Included

- Return transfers with an English guide from CBD Hotel.

Services Excluded

- Entrance fees.
- Meals and beverages.

Please Note

- Departs daily on request.
- Tours do not run on Sundays, Easter Friday, Christmas Day, Cape Argus Cycle Race and the Two Oceans Marathon Day.

HERMANUS

Hermanus Whale Cruise - Operates June to November only

Code: SOU009

Option: SOUWHA

Make your own way to the New Harbour in Hermanus.

Your whale watching trip will begin with an on-land briefing led by a whale specialist guide. Set off in a catamaran from the New Harbour in Hermanus and start to search for the gentle giants. The custom built catamaran provides superior viewing. Our permit entitles us to approach the whales up to 50m and then we stop to observe, it is then up to the whales to approach closer. Being naturally curious, the whales often come right up to the boat. It is definitely a magical experience to be treasured.

Your whale specialist guide will interpret the marine life encountered en-route and provide you with insights into the behaviour of the whales whilst you watch them in action.

On return to land, peruse the locally available crafts, order a copy of your tour (cost excluded), which will be immediately available on USB, or simply relax in the outdoor seating area situated on the edge of the quay.

JOHANNESBURG

Cycling in Soweto Operates Monday to Friday only

Code: LEB004

Option: LEBCYC

You will be met at your centrally located Johannesburg hotel and you will transfer to Soweto Backpackers.

You will start your cycling tour by reaching a look-out point situated within Orlando East and West where you will be introduced to Soweto. Thereafter you will head to the former men's hostel in Mzimhlophe, which used to be the home of mine workers during the apartheid era.

Along the way you will stop at various street stalls or local shops to buy and taste typical township fare. Your tour will continue to the community of Meadowlands, famous for its forced removals of the mixed race area of Sophiatown in the mid-1950. Learn more about how the Apartheid government divided the population according to race groups.

You will continue your cycle tour along various streets, seeing various neighbourhoods and how people in Soweto have progressed and you will head towards Orlando West. Your next stop will be at the Hector Pieterse Memorial; a site that commemorates the student uprising that took place on the 16th of June 1976, where students took to the streets against the oppressive education system and police answered with teargas and live ammunition resulting in many children losing their lives.

Thereafter, cycle down to Vilakazi Street, the only street in the world that was the home of two Nobel Peace Prize winners, Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Desmond Tutu. Stop outside Mandela House and learn more about this great man, his family and their time in Soweto as well as their contribution to the struggle for freedom. Cycle further down the street to the Tutu home and hear about another great icon in the fight against Apartheid.

We return to Lebo's Soweto Backpackers, where you end your tour with a traditional drink ceremony. Sit together in a circle passing the traditional calabash around for a taste of the Sorghum beer and the maize drink, Mageu. Both drinks are home brewed by the women in the community.
