

Cape Point Full Day Tour

Short Description

Travel along the Atlantic seaboard to Cape Point via Chapman's Peak and Cape Peninsula. Visit the Cape Point Nature Reserve and the Boulders penguin colony (own expense), where guests can see the rare African Penguins. The last stop is the Rhodes Memorial viewpoint.

Long description

Cape Town is built on a mountainous peninsula. This full-day tour is an ideal way to see the city's highlights. Travel along the Atlantic seaboard with its white beaches and rugged mountains to Hout Bay and from there continue on Chapman's Peak Drive, noted as one of the most stunning roadways in the world (subject to road being open). Visit the Cape Point Nature Reserve and the tip of the Cape Peninsula that has captivated travelers for centuries. The return journey to Cape Town takes guests along the False Bay coast with the option of visiting the colony of rare African Penguins at Boulders Beach (at your own expense). Guests will pass through the naval village of Simon's Town, Fish Hoek, Kalk Bay and Muizenberg. Visit the Rhodes Memorial viewpoint and learn about the significance of this historical site before returning to the hotel.
